Dorothy,

I want you to know I really care about you a lot and I really miss you! We both have our faults & we've had our bad times but, we're still sisters & always will be!!! I want you to come to me if you ever need a friend & I hope to see you next summer!! Be good & I will come!

Dorothy,
A very sweet &
special friend of mine
that I miss & wish you were here. Bay City is getting to be a drag, but what can I say? Hope we stay friends for as long as we can keep in touch. How much with all the guys.

VOL. 68

Bay City High School

Bay City, Texas

Pep Rallies Keep Spirits High

Friday afternoon pep rallies were a high point of every week during the football seasons that saw the Black Cats rated number one throughout the state, even to that fateful final game when the last three minutes of play saw our state title hopes crushed.

1. "Cat scratch fever"
2. Spirit fever
3. P-U-S-H!
4. Mention a camera . . .
5. And this is dancing?

1. A sweet little kitty-cat mascot.
2. Look out guys, here I come!
3. Little drummer boys?
4. I'm tootin' as hard as I can!

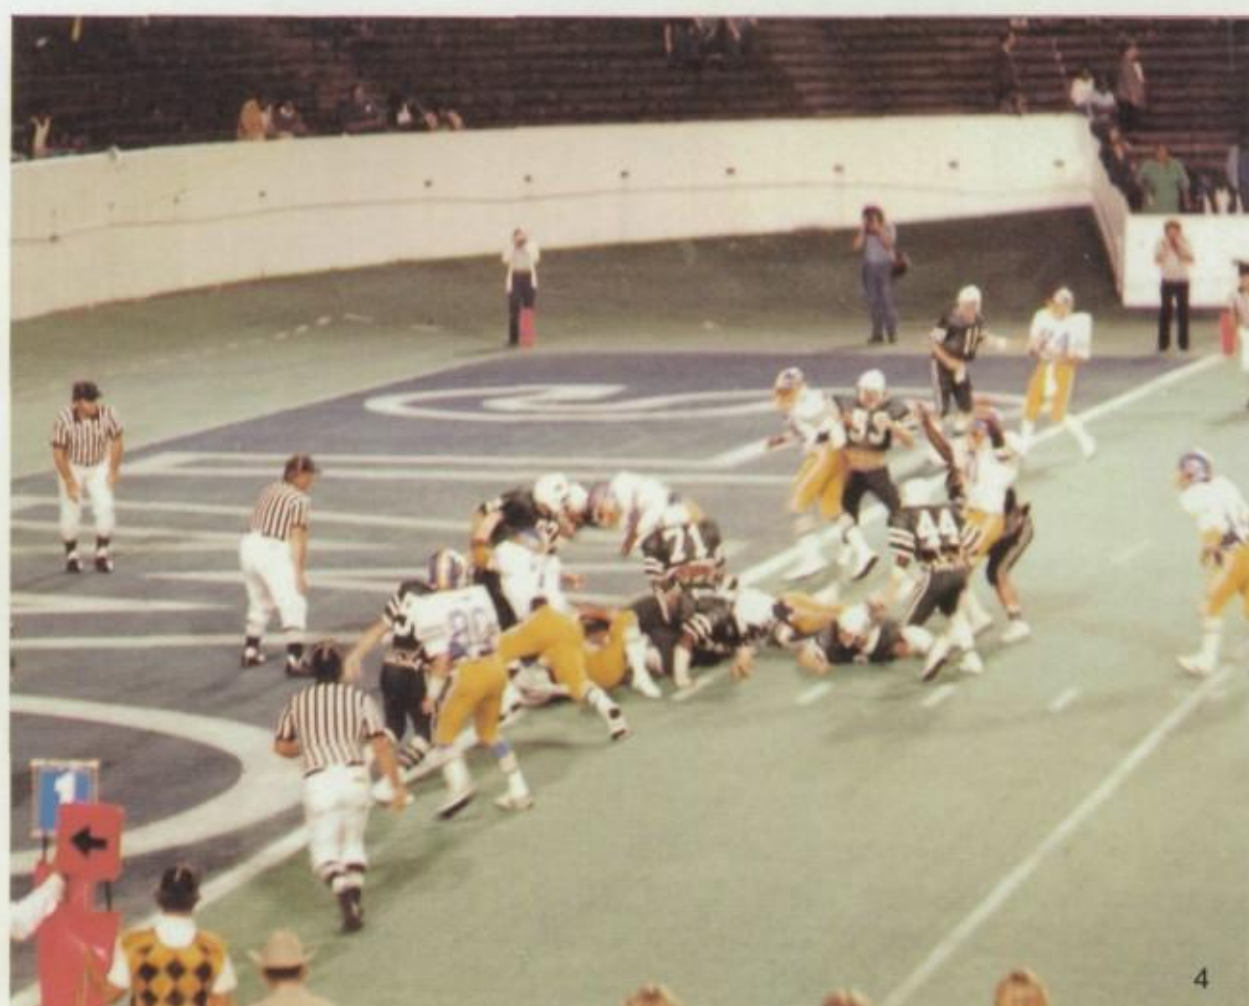

Cats Play Hard

No matter what the weather conditions, the Black Cats could be depended upon to give a good accounting of themselves throughout the football season.

1. The Black Cats break through on the way to another win.
2. Patrick runs for another TD on his way to blue-chip status.
3. Good blocking helps again.
4. Push-Push over the goal line!

Fans Cheer Hard

Wherever the Fightin' Black Cat went, their loyal fans were always there to cheer them on.

1. Super guys are number 1.
2. Fans cheer 'em on.
3. Silks add color to band.
4. Aristocats add glamour.

Homecoming Attracts Many

1. Getting off to a dashing start.
2. Presenting the honorees.
3. Parade of finalists.
4. The future queen.
5. Painting the town.

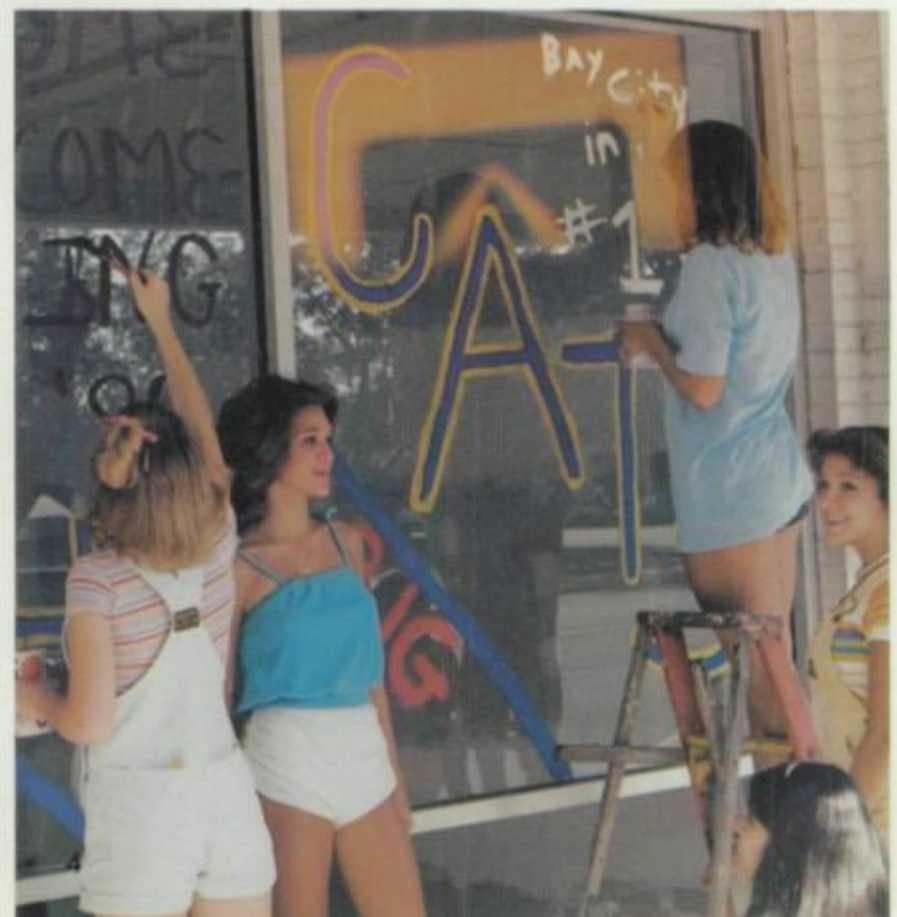

Spirit Fever

Painting the town gets a literal interpretation during the week before Homecoming as merchants allow student groups to paint up store windows.

1. A highlight of the all-school assembly is the presentation of Moms of the football players.
2. Rubens add a Spanish touch to their window decorations.
3. There's always a rainbow, if one only cares to look.
4. And a dash of golden paint is just the right touch for these Black Cat artists.

Costume Day Heralds Halloween

Halloween fell on a Friday football game night, so what better way to get the roving spirits on the side of the Black Cats than by having an all-day Halloween Party at school!

1. Cheerleaders find it's harder to form that famous pyramid in costumes.
2. Best costume awards for Ozella and Michelle.
3. Drag and a mask prove fun for bandmen.
4. Hats are fine for these two.

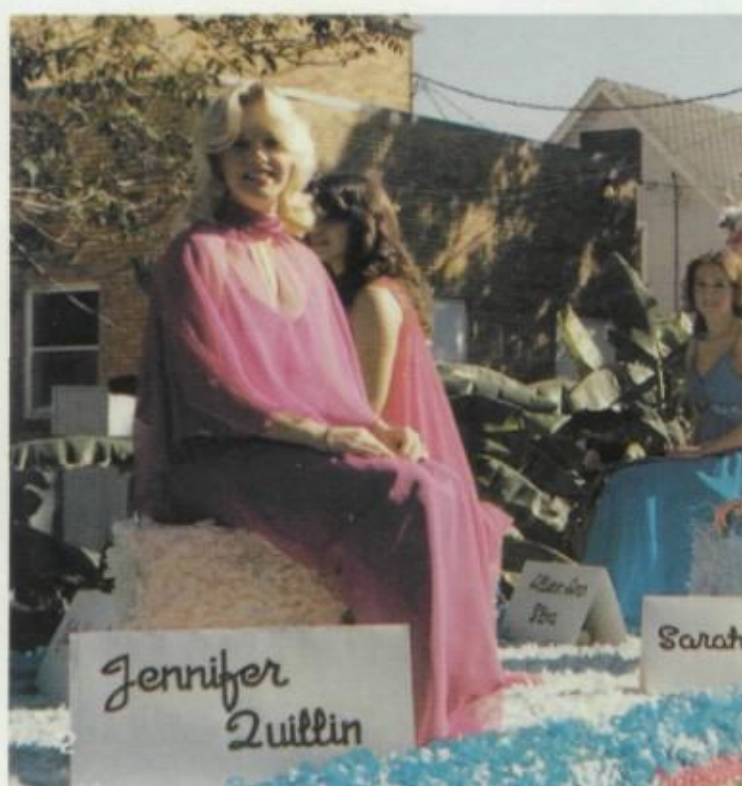

Fantasies Take Shape of Reality . . .

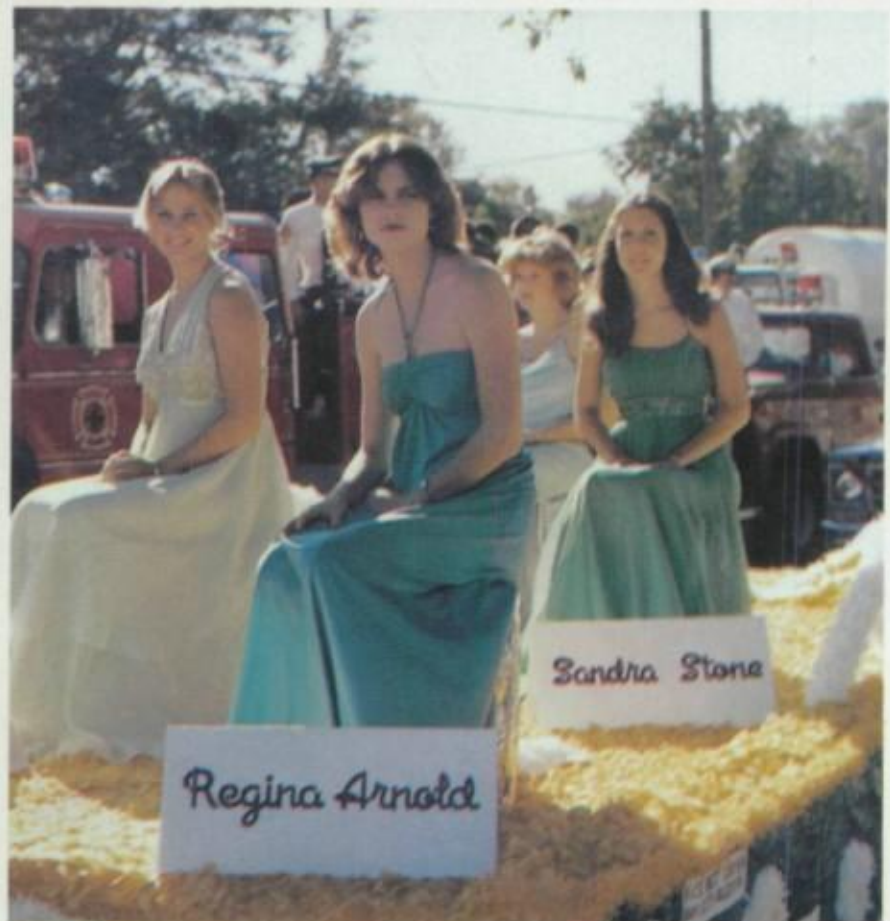

1. Popeye and his pop take a lass for a ride.
2. "No, No, a Thousand times No!"
3. Patty prefers not to play.
4. Leslie prefers to smile a tooth-gap grin.

Annual Rice Festival Honors Many

Said on Campus . . .

1. Mixed nuts!
2. Oreol!
3. Makin' sweet music.
4. Salute the teachers.

1. . . . No truer words.
2. We are "family".
3. Let's try it again.
4. Can you go a little slower?

Memorable Moments

1. Football games are so exciting.
2. Just a Coke and a smile.
3. You don't look like one, even with the hat.
4. Wanna ride?

1. Now, who's been in my locker?
2. Who says we don't have classes without walls?

3. Now, all together . . .

4. Wave bye, bye . . .

Madrigal Draws Community Interest

Foreword

This year Bay City High School and The Black Cat Annual as we know them, celebrate their 50th anniversary. I'm bringing to you the Golden Anniversary Edition of The Black Cat we have gone back to each of the buildings that Bay City High School has held classes in . . .

Through research we have found that although high-school-level education has been taught in Bay City for 68 years, the first eighteen were taught in the facility known as Jeff Davis High School.

As you look back through your annual in years to come, we hope that through our cameras and words we have captured some of the more memorable moments of the year. With this in mind, we bring you the 1980-81 Black Cat.

Administration & Faculty

No matter where a school is located, or what its name, its students depend on understanding teachers and administrators to lead them through the subjects they must know and the habits they must acquire to become good citizens of the community.

At left, Principal Walton, Counselor Murphy, and Coach Sardelich stop for a brief visit.

At right, Mrs. Williams and Miss Owens seem to be enjoying a few minutes before their next classes.

Below, Mrs. Fountain and a student are having a lively exchange of opinions.

The 1980-1981 school year began under the direction of a new superintendent, Dr. R. L. McMichael.

1. Above, Dr. McMichael pauses for the photographer during a session with his two chief assistants, Sam Maglitto, center, who is Director of Curriculum and Instruction; and Eddie G. Jecmenek, Assistant Superintendent, Business Affairs.
2. At left, Dr. McMichael stops in the high school to admire some of the many trophies acquired over the years by Black Cat athletic teams.

Central Administrators, B.C.I.S.D.

Bay City High School welcomed Bobby Kimball as principal in the 1980-1981 school year. A former teacher at high school, he had spent the past several years as principal at one of the two sixth-through-eighth-grade schools in the district.

1. Principal Kimball maintained an "open-door" policy and was always willing to put aside his paperwork for a visitor.
2. Looking over a roster with Mr. Kimball are Richard Walton who spent his high school days at BCHS and then served as a coach before accepting appointment as Assistant Principal for Student Affairs; and, Orlando Schraub, longtime Assistant Principal for Financial Affairs.

Social Studies, Government

History, geography, and government studies help students understand their world and they become better citizens.

Classroom studies are supplemented by current events and films of important events.

Additionally, this year, students were able to use television to observe Ronald Reagan, a former actor and governor of California, elected and installed as the 40th president; and, witnessed the return of 52 embassy hostages from Iran after 444 days of captivity.

Support Services Keep Wheels Turning

The unsung heroes of any large organization are the men and women who see to the comfort and well-being of others.

Two such groups at Bay City High School are the cafeteria staff and maintenance staff.

At right is the maintenance group that arrives early and stays late to make sure rooms are comfortable and clean.

Also arriving early to make sure a breakfast is ready, as well as a variety of a-la-carte and plate lunches is the group of ladies who work in the lunchroom.

Welcome to BCHS!

Open House Revives Old Tradition

Special evenings when parents are invited to school and follow the schedule of their children have been common at the lower levels of BCISD and have provided a chance to become acquainted with the teachers and curriculum.

The tradition was revived at BCHS this year under Principal Bobby Kimball.

Accompanied in many cases by their young people, the parents spent 15-minute periods with the teachers.

Freshmen — Class of '84

The freshman class has begun the four-year trek that will be shorter than they realize.

Pictured in front of the Vocational Building, which was the last major unit added to the BCISD secondary system are Susan Opella, treasurer; Kenneth Watkins, president; Pam Koudelka, secretary; Chris Cervantes, vice president; and Cindy Seidel, reporter.

Leading the spirited freshman chants are Susan Opella, Frank Glaspy and Belinda Vaclavik.

A Tribute To Laurie

*Someone special's gone away—strange—
I watched her play just yesterday.
She shared the love of many a friend;
I'd never dreamed that it would end.*

*She was always such a happy child,
Never so hesitant to share her smile.
She was always on air and so carefree;
Now her laughter is just a memory.*

*But that memory—oh how grand!
She spread a smile in Blackcat land
She holds a place in all our hearts;
Oh what a pain to see her part.*

*But now she's gone to happy land;
Another angel in God's great hand.
Yes, an angel; with shining wings;
And happy memories her smile will bring.*

*I think of her, a child so dear
My heart feels weak, there comes a tear.
Yet I know that now within her place
She wears a smile upon her face.*

'Granny' Holloway Retires

A legend in her own time will be leaving the halls of Bay City High this year. After 26 years of teaching "Granny Holloway" will retire her map pencils, history charts and textbooks to take up the life of country-ease at her beloved Hocheim farm.

A miniature look-alike for Katherine Hepburn, Granny has taught every history course offered by BCHS except Texas history. She is well-known for her ability to coax satisfactory work from even the most reluctant learner.

We'll miss you, Granny . . . but enjoy your shade trees and having more time for your own grandchildren!

Clubs Play Important Role

Mixing learning with fun activities are the many clubs found on campus. They cover all ranges of interests, from the career-oriented to the cultural.

At left, is the Interclub Council, composed of presidents of the various organizations.

At right, is a team from the Student Council that helped members of the larger community become aware of safety needs.

And below, is a group that took an informal pre-election poll and presented peanuts to Jimmy Carter supporters and oranges to Ronald Reagan voters.

Art Club Develops Talents

One of the most talented and active clubs on campus is the Art Club.

Under the leadership of Ms. Becky Owens, the group participated in, and sponsored a number of art shows, and competitions.

Typical of the events bringing "rave reviews" was the mid-winter show of student art which attracted members of the community to the foyer of the Keye Ingram auditorium.

FFA Trains Leaders in Vo-Ag

Leaders in the thriving vo-ag industries of Matagorda County get their start in the many programs sponsored by the Future Farmers of American Chapter at BCHS.

Reaching district, county and state levels is nothing new to these students, most of whom will be successful in future enterprises.

Council Offers Leadership

Offering many services and projects to better the quality of student life is the vigorous and active Student Council.

Among its many successful projects are safety awareness programs for neighborhoods, the Annual Blood Bank Drive, baskets for needy families and the popular "secret pal" program that spreads cheer throughout the year for members of the teaching staff.

Service Clubs Stress Civic Duty

The Bay City Kiwanis Clubs and Rotary sponsor active student groups on campus that give service on city-wide projects as well as on BCHS activities related mainly to the school.

Keywanettes enjoy sorority-like club.

Keywanettes collect for Jerry's Kids.

Vocational Office Education evokes smiles

Vocational clubs inspire professionalism

Friendly competition and attention to good work habits guarantee success for students in cooperative work programs.

Shown are only a few of the many taking advantage of the opportunities in office and distributive education and cosmetology.

Homemaking Skills Remain Important

Instruction and clubs related to the food service industry still attract mostly female students as found by Shirley Hart in the CVAE kitchen and Carrie Ann Williams. However, enrollment in H.E.C.E. also attracts efficient male members.

C.V.A.E. homemakers enjoy preparing faculty lunches.

H.E.C.E. members like the challenge of daily outside elective activities.

Auto Mechanics remains male domain.

Girls Invade 'Male' Territory

No longer are classes in the traditional male industries closed to females.

Bay City High School girls are enthusiastic and efficient workers in the Industrial Cooperative Training Program and in welding.

Math Club Deals in Facts, Figures

Algebraic functions, square roots, and points on tangents are details that members of the Math Club like to tackle.

Some are "in to" computer math, a new study this year and many like the challenge of UIL-type inter-district competitions.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Ida Mendiola

YVETTE WOODS

Awarded Bay City High School's most prestigious student popularity honor for girls, Yvette has been a cheerleader for all four years in BCHS.

She was previously named junior class favorite and Sophomore Sweetheart.

In addition, she was a member of the basketball team that placed second in state 4A competition this year and is a familiar member of all-district teams. She has also "gone to state" on the Black Cat girls' mile relay team.

JOHNNY ROBINSON

This year's president of the Student Council, Johnny previously captured his class favorite title for three years in a row.

He is vice president of the Black Cat Band, and has been a member of the state-qualifying track team throughout his high school career.

He was a member of the One-Act Play cast that reached state level last year. Additionally, he sings in the choir and served as sophomore class president.

Along with these duties, he has also served as president of his FHA chapter this year.

Miss B.C.H.S. and Mr. B.C.H.S.

PATTY SEEKER

Nominated by the faculty and voted on by the Student Body, the "most valuable girl" award goes to band president Patty.

She is also secretary of the senior class; and a member of the Student Council and National Honor Society.

Her leadership abilities have been singled out further as a delegate to Girls' State and as the D.A.R. Good Citizen for 1981.

She has been a Favorites' nominee each year and was a Homecoming Queen Finalist.

RALPH SEIDEL

Also known as the president of the Senior Class, Ralph was a class favorites' nominee each year in high school.

He is a member of the Student Council and serves as vice president of the Interact Club that gives service to the community.

Ralph has also been a member of that winning Black Cat football team.

He, too, served as a delegate to Boys' State, the American Legion's project for developing good citizens by having outstanding junior students attend a model government encampment at Austin.

Most Dependable Boy and Girl

BRET BURFORD

The person chosen by the student body as the "most handsome" boy in the senior class, is a soft-spoken brunette who is known for his intelligence as well as his good looks.

Bret is vice president of the National Honor Society Chapter at Bay City High School.

He, too, served as a delegate to Boys' State last summer.

In addition, he also is a member of Interact and is the club secretary.

SUSAN SULLIVAN

Brunettes seem more popular than blondes this year as the students chose brownette Susan Sullivan as their most beautiful senior girl.

She was named class favorite in both her freshman and sophomore years.

She has been a member of the Leo Club and Fellowship of Christian Athletes, having been a valued member of the Black Cat basketball team for three years.

This year she is also a member of the Office Education Association.

ANNETTE SMITH

Nominated by coaches, the "Most Athletic" awards are also given final judgement by student body vote.

Winning this year's female award, Annette has had a truly distinguished athletic career. She was named All District for four years in basketball and made the all-state honors list this year.

She also competes in track and has been named MVP in her major sports.

In track she has competed on the state-level in High Jump and the Mile Relay Team.

ENOCH, GATSON, JR.

Bay City's "genial giant," Enoch has capped his four-year football career with a scholarship to Baylor University.

He earned his first football letter as a freshman and has been a team captain for two years. He has also made first team on the All-Greater Houston Dream-Team for two years and is on this year's High School All-American.

Additionally, he was Junior Class reporter and serves as Student Council reporter this year.

He is vice president of the FCA, a member of the FHA, and the Key Club.

Heartbreak Felt

Despite a continuous hardpaced offense and defense led by veteran squad members, the Black Cat Varsity roundballers lost their chance to repeat as state contenders.

The odds seemed against the Black Cats who, nevertheless, provided fans with a season of thrills.

The boys' varsity team did win the district title, their fifth. Hopes for future victories remain high since the freshman and JV squads also won their District races.

The exciting basketball season took its' toll when track season rolled around this spring. Many of the leading round-ballers have been leaders on past track teams and they simply did not feel up to another highly competitive season.

As a result, the girls' track team was low on members, but high in spirit.

Debra Franklin, a highly rated competitor who had been nominated for "most athletic girl," gained spots on the regional level in discus and shotput.

Other seniors who hung up their track shoes after giving four years of good competition in a variety of sports included Kim Owens and Renee Hobbins.

Spring Sports Picnic Honors Teams

The informal Spring Athletics Picnic has become a tradition sponsored by the Black Cat Booster Club.

Held at the swimming pool, it was postponed until the very last week of school so that the baseball team members could participate without violating UIL rules.

But, luckily, as fate would have it, the baseball team could not attend anyway. They were still in contention for a state tournament berth and were in the middle of their bi-district tilts with San Antonio.

At the close of their season, Baseball Coach Walt Wendtland announced his awards: Ed Gay, top-hitter; Daniel Pena, pitcher-of-the-year; Ronnie Mullen and Ed Gay, most valuable players; and Phil Worsham, "fighting heart."

At the picnic, Robby Wainner was presented the "Best Off-Season" Award.

Spring sports athletes honored by their coaches and teams included:

Basketball — Ivan Pettit, most valuable male player; Eddie Roberts, most dependable; and Dewayne Bowden and Billy Booker, outstanding players. For the fourth year in a row, UT-bound Annette Smith coped the most valuable female award.

Swimming — Kathleen Quillin and Frank Paniszczyn, most valuable players; and Scott Rouse, Laurie Bell "fighting heart" award.

Track — Pat Franklin, who competed at state-level; and Debra Franklin, who qualified at regional.

Tennis — Tim Nelson and Bobby Barrera, who qualified for state doubles; and Linda Andrade.

Golf — Freshman Rebecca Bossley, and Ronnie O'Neal, best players.

Blood Donors Exceed Goal

In a year filled with outstanding projects of community service, the Student Council once again conducted its Blood Drive in February, Heart Month.

This year was a superlative year in many ways. And, the Blood Drive was no exception. More donors than ever signed up. And, the result was an "over the top" collection of life's most precious fluid.

Breathlessly waiting for that coveted invitation to join the National Honor Society is quickly followed by breath-holding anxiety over what the initiation rites will involve.

Advertisers Support Efforts

Throughout the 50 years of our yearbook's existence, local merchants have always been willing to give their financial as well as moral support.

In addition to listening to our "sales-pitch" and then buying ads, many of them also provide work-experience for our students.

At right, is Allison Sliva who enjoys meeting the clientele of one of Bay City's fine gift shops.

Below, are students who help staff a local office supply and book store. They include Robby Dziuk, John Eldridge, Glenn Balusek, Jennifer Quillin, and Kathleen Quillin.

SALUTES

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1981

'The future of tomorrow is in your hands'

Yesterday

is dead and gone . . .

. . . But,

the memory lingers on —

1981

The year '1981' is printed in a bold, black, serif font. It is centered within a circular frame composed of several concentric, slightly irregular black lines. To the right of the circle, a long, elegant, black flourish extends outwards, ending in a small hook.
